The Upside of Down - Series #4

2. This question of the Philippian jailer reveals that he himself was conscious of being lost.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

3. This jailer's question reveals not only that man is lost but also the possibility of being saved.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

4. The jailer's question, "What must I do to be saved?" indicates a willingness on his part to be saved.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

5. The jailer's question, "What must I do to be saved?" tells me that while salvation is a possibility for us, we must do something in order to obtain it.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

6. This jailer's question tells me that the conditions of salvation are not optional, that it is not up to me to invent the conditions for being saved. "What must I do to be saved?"

The Upside of Down - Series #4

7. This question tells us that being saved is an individual matter. "What must I do to be saved?"

The Upside of Down - Series #4

“Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved - you and your household.” Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house.

Faith must have an object.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father but by me."

John 14:6

The Upside of Down - Series #4

I am one who needs to be saved.
I am separated from You.
I believe Jesus is Lord and that the cross was for me.
Come and live in me and change
me.
I give my heart to You.

The Upside of Down - Series #4

If any man is in Christ he is a new creation, the old has gone and the new has come.
